two times a day i see no reason for this anyway a minute or two penetrated and faded by you tender and brief superficial and ready to leave dejected and late so extinguished so tired to wait covered again everytime when sun turns to rain, but it's all the same all the same> two times a day it's no season for this anyway a minute or two penetrated an faded by you dejected and late so extinguished so tired to wait we're jaded so far, turn the lights of and get in the car covered again
