1st Verse:

Actual and factual the true story has been told of how a life came to be, and through hurt and pain was forged a true life Hisstory,

Like that of a Blood Diamond and the pressure placed upon a piece of coal, the story is worth its weight in gold, and Hisstory must still unfold,

For His Story includes Her Story, and together they make for a story too bold, told throughout all of eternity,
for it is one to have and to hold,

And their story goes from the beginning of time and it grows day by day, a story of life, life, pleasure and pain, carefully written so as not to waste away,

For the storytellers and the scribes have written a million times true, our story the true Hisstory that can never be tainted or swindled away from me and you,

So our story is one that will stand the test of time, as we live and write it anew every single day, the story of how we came to be, our HISSTORY, as we live and grow, every day and in every way,

Ad Libitum and Fade
