1st Verse:

Nocturnal I sleep all day and possess the thirst all night, a thirst that leaves a hunger in the pit of my stomach in the daylight,

Satisfaction and success are the answers to the question, what's driving the hunger for the thirst? One is no good without the other, and you must feed to satisfy the thirst,

On the grind all of the time, at every hour on the hour throughout the night, I must feed and quench the thirst and keep my game tight,

Nocturnal you sleep through the day but you need to plant your seed in fertile soil, because it needs the sunlight to help it grow in the richness of the warmth of your soil,

Eternal the fire burns, and sets my third rail on fire, developing the thirst, from the need to feed, nocturnal satisfying my desires,
