1st Verse:

Normandie Blue the streets is watching you, out on the stroll, in the hood is solid gold,

Normandie Blue it's all about you, every corner you turn, has a lesson for you to learn,

Every day is a struggle just to stay alive, with the drama of the ghetto trying to survive,

Normandie Blue, I love you, cuz your heart is true to no one else but you,

But should you slip and fall, it doesn't matter at all, for there's nowhere else to go, and there's so much more to know,

Normandie Blue, the streets is watching you, so keep your game tight, and everything will be alright,

And pay attention when the streets call out to you, for the ghetto needs you and all that you mean to it
Normandie Blue,

Rise Normandie Blue, it's your time true, the ghetto is a fabulous place, and it has love for you, Normandie Blue,
