Burn skillet diddly diddly doo
There's something I need to tell you

Been holding it in for quite some time.
If I don't tell you it will be a love crime
I follow you around everyday in the mall
Hoping one day you would suck on me balls
I really like you though I don't know your name
And it's driving me fucking insane
I dream of you everyday and night
I look at your boobs and they are hella tight
I want you and that's all you need to know
Now get on your knees you smelly ass hoe

Like I said we do have a thing for you
I just want it to be you and us two
We are cousins and yes we stalk on you
Get over here so we can manhandle you

Give me your name I can add you on facebook
I will find your page so I can take a look
Want to see if you are actually my type
See if your worthy of my organ pipe

Maybe we can go out for a bite
Then I can take you home for the night
We will have to sneak in
So I don't wake my parents again
Now let's take things back to reality
Let's talk about our sexual morality
I want you more than ever
We can do it where ever ever

I'm running late so I will lett you go
But you better be my girl you skanky hoe,
But there is one thing you should know
So with no further a do here we go

Like I said we do have a thing for you
I just want it to be you and us two
We are cousins and yes we stalk on you

Get over here so we can manhandle you
