We're the ones with the runaway eyes

we're the ones who can improvise.
Give us room and a hot situation

we believe in positive stimulation.

We are the young
we are the young with the modern attitude

Breakin' down the walls

breakin' all the rules
we are the young.
Tomorrow comes and we might blow away

So we don't worry 'bout the price we pay.

We are the young
we are the young
we are the young.
Ev'ry street is an arcade of dreams

Uptown
downtown
exploding at the seams.
With lights and sounds and the soul parade

White and blue collar promenade.
We are the young

we are the young with the modern attitude
...
We are the young

we are the young with the modern attitude
...
Another way to gain control

a brand-new day to rock and roll.

We are the young
we are the young
we are the young.
Another way to gain control
a brand-new day to rock and roll.
We are the young

we are the young with the modern attitude. . . .

We are the young
we are the young with the modern attitude

Breakin' down the walls
breakin' all the rules

we are the young

We are the young
we are the young
we are the young.
We are the young
we are the young
young
young
young

We are the young
young.
