Ain't no woman gonna bring me down with those teary
eyes

Ain't no woman gonna bring me down with those teary lies

And oh my god, why do I watch you cry?

And oh my god, this shits got to die

Lookin' out my window and what do I see?

This pretty young girl and she's chasing me

And oh my god, why won't you let me be?

And oh my god, why won't you let me be?

When I look at you there's one thing I despise

Lookin' at you with those teary eyes

And oh my god, you are full of lies

And oh my god, you are full of lies

Ain't no woman gonna bring me down.
