How do you know - if there's a voice, any choice? it's a Highway patrol - you've gotta smile with the boys, and a-

How do you know? - because I've licked them together all the time

How do you know - if there's a type with a mind? and a-Losing [aggro] - a-changing laws for the times, tell me How do you know? - they're being laid back a [general over crime]

When I [jap] and I see [class] total controlling, and the rats in the street won't leave me alone I wanna [come my way], I wanna sit down beside her, I wanna roll on up a [...] [I've put a-come on] the tiger, 'cos nothing's gonna stop.

How do you know? - well there's a man with a family [..?] he's looking after the community
How do you know? - he's selling class b and talking 'bout a dream
Where do you [talk]? can there be some poor grey bugger?
[give them] a mark - he'd be the mile of the way, I like it Where do you start? - well keep your Dad worth a-dead or never seen

I'm gonna [jap] and a-seethe, got the power to steal, we'd have a Background chat just to know how it feels A-book a submarine, and you could hang around in silence until the time you stop a-breathing Well it's a very similar feeling to what you're feeling now

CHORUS:

All fire up, pass it up 'til they legalise the demon from the ground
I'm all fired up, and I'm down in the agony of Deep and [triangle!/trying for] peace, small release, but a small release it hears me

(how do you know?)

How do you know - if there's a voice, any choice? it's a Highway patrol - make up the rules, 'cos the boys got the Power to grow, because the stupid people for it know the rule - yes they do!

But the [jap] and they see [craft] total control, we've gotta drink next time while the [...] hold So everybody works, if you stickle with the system, and if you miss it like a roundhead Until you're strung out for grounded, and nothing's gonna stop
