Last night I had a dream about a boy that I love.
We ride bikes by the sea... we high-five in setting
suns... woah oh oh.
In this dream we have a house, made of love and understanding.
No girls to break our hearts, just friendship and compassion... woah oh oh...
And we all sing a song of love, a song of freedom.
We all sing a song of hope and it goes...
We shall overcome. yesterday I saw this girl, just got back from overseas,
Well she believes in me... she's been there since the beginning... woah oh oh.
This girl she is my sister and I love her and I miss her.
I can't wait till we're back together, when she gets home from school... woah oh oh...
And we all sing a song of love, a song of freedom.
We all sing a song of hope and it goes...
We shall overcome... someday. well I've got this friend in Brooklyn...
Sings like he's got the spirit in him, oh I just like to listen...
Feel I've got so much to learn... woah oh oh. and all my friends down in atlanta...
A couple hippies, the vampire, and the jacket. can't forget how good we have it,
And that's why I've gotta sing about it... woah oh oh...
and we all sing a song of love,
A song of freedom. we all sing a song of hope and it goes we shall overcome... someday.
