Should Have Let You Love Me:

i shut the door,
i walked away
took your life and let it fade. i just let go, i didn't fight and i keep asking myself why why did i think you would just wait wait down for me
you wouldn't break
why didn't i just see the truth, what was i trying to proof

i should have let you love me
now i understand,
you're supposed to be my man should have never let you lonely now you've moved on and i am still here watching hopes just dissappear you were the one i know that now i change the past if i knew how how did i think you would just wait, wait down for me

you wouldn't break

now i understand,
i should have been stronger it could have been forever what's killing me the most that no one ever knows, i should have let you love me.

for one more chance
one more kiss
one more night
even one more fight i'd do anything and everything to bring you back again but you're with her
