I have no time for heedless hurry

I have no time for the hustler's bluff

I have no time for restless worry

I have all the time in the world for love

I have no time to chase perfection

I have no time for the rock of righteousness

I have no time for cruel correction

I have all the time in the world for tenderness

All the time in the world to watch you when you're sleeping

All the time in the world to kiss you when you wake

All the time in the world for the promises worth keeping

And the promises sometimes we must break

I have no time for the veils of violence

I have no time for walls without release

I have no time for the smiles of tyrants

I have all the time in the world for peace

All the time in the world to watch you when you're sleeping

All the time in the world to kiss you when you wake

All the time in the world for the promises worth keeping

And the promises sometimes we must break

I have no time for pretty poison

I have no time for what is not true

I have no time for quiet desperation

I have all the time in the world for you

I have all the time in the world for you
