Don't forget, I'll always be in love with you
Never let the blues get the best of you
Don't forget, I'll always want you by my side

Don't forget, I'll always want to be with you
By my side, I know my love I'll never hide
It's so easy to say I'll always love you so-yeh

Always times in life when love is so wrong, love is so wrong
They always try to put you down
When ever we're alone

I know we're young, they say we're irresponsible
But don't you cry, our love is not impossible
Don't regret, I'll always want you by my side Truly, yes I will

And there's something I wanted to say a long time ago
I'll say it right now
There are so many things in life that make me feel bad
But you make me feel so strong

Don't forget, I'll always be in love with you
Never let the blues get the best of you
Don't forget, I'll always want you by my side
Oh, by my side
Oh, baby
By my side
