I'm a mess, yeah I'm in a crazy state of mind
And it's the best felling that I've had in my whole life
Under arrest yeah my heart is beating out of time
I resist coz I'm in the mood now to defy

Still I long for someone that I feel I can confide
You're the one, you seem surprised

This is my last confession
I don't wanna be led into the light
This is my soul condition
I'm not feeling remorse for my lies
This is my desperation
I don't wanna get out of this alive
This is my last confession

I confess, I am not a stranger now to sin
'Round my neck I can feel the cross that burns my skin

Still I long for someone that I feel I can confide
You're the one, you seem surprised

This is my last confession
I don't wanna be led into the light
This is my soul condition
I'm not feeling remorse for my lies
This is my desperation
I don't wanna get out of this alive
This is my last confession

My last confession
My last confession

This is my last confession
I don't wanna be led into the light
This is my soul condition
I'm not feeling remorse for my lies
This is my desperation
I don't wanna get out of this alive
This is my last confession
