Glowing eyes that ask if I would risk it all
Fight the crowding dark away
I can't help but feel that You are searching me
At the dusk of summer's first day
Fragile wings bring little messages of light

Firefly burning inside, I'll fly
With the light inside of me

Circling free from a gently opened jar
With a halo You show me
A symbol of the fact that I am carrying
The image of Your glory
Fragile wings bring little messages of light

Firefly burning inside, I'll fly
With the light inside of me

Firefly burning inside, I'll fly
With the light inside of me

I burn to know Your will, Your ways
Your heart and mind and learn to love the way You love

A luminescent speck shining at the perfect time
Tests the temporary night and signals other tiny fires
Time to light up and fly, light up, light up and fly

Firefly burning inside, I'll fly
With the light inside of me
