Yesterday I lived for me
And I was so alone as I could be
Then I saw you and how you give yourself away
And I want to live for you today

I'll give, I'll hold nothing
I'll give and I'll hold nothing back

My love is a lot like me
Wanting nothing less than everything
But I know, you're the only love that's true
And only giving makes me close to you

My hands are open, so take what you see
And I'll keep nothing, hold nothing back from me
