

Smalltown Poets "That Line"

Visit "That Line" on MotoLyrics.com

Even when it's eggshells, even when it's broken glass Prophet follows the path well, and He has feet that last I saw them carrying crosses and they were forming up that line

Were so many walking before me, some helped me pick up mine
Right in front and behind, yeah, I have all I need as a sign

I've got to walk that line, I've got to walk that line
I've got to walk that line

No one's thinking for me in between commitment and the prize
The most you can do is trust the faith you see with your own eyes
And my feet are still tender like skin is, is when it heals

Got to walk that line, I've got to walk that line
I've got to walk that line, line

We remember how You bled when we all drank the wine
We're looking for Your steps that started up that line

Got to walk that line, I've got to walk that line
I've got to walk that line

Got to walk that line, got to walk that line

I've got to walk that line, got to walk that line
Got to walk that line

Got to walk that line, got to walk that line
Got to walk that line

Got to walk that line, got to walk that line
Got to walk that line

Got to walk that line, got to walk that line

