A single spark has left your mind on fire
And taken hold of all your old desires
The kindest words get so obscured between your thoughts on what they'll say
But you're satisfied we'll work it out our own way

And I might not make it right or give you great advice
But you can chew my ear
I won't leave you alone tonight
(Right beside you, I won't leave)
I won't leave you alone tonight

So mind yourself and the path you follow
Find someone else to choose those lies you swallowed Your filthy mind has left you trying things that can only end in tears
So take your time your mistakes won't end here

And although it's been a while, you can call me anytime
I'm sad I've been away for far too long (too long)
This time I won't
(This time, I won't)
Leave you alone tonight
(Leave you alone tonight)

I won't leave you alone

And ofcourse I'll come around, true friends won't let you down
We can just drink tea or I could take you out to town

And I know it's been a while but you can call me anytime
I'm sad I've been away for far too long (too long)
(Leave you alone tonight)
This time, I won't be gone too long
(Leave you alone tonight)
(Take your time, I won't leave you alone)
This time, I wont leave you alone tonight

Leave you alone

Woah, leave you alone
Leave you alone
