I walk into the room
You don't have to scream I can hear you
Bad trip, the needle sticks
You get your fix from confrontation
I try to make it past
I don't wanna get into it right now
Can't this family have one day
To get away from all the pain

And through the night I see the light
Shining from the neighbors' windows
I dream of life where I'm safe
In a home where I am not alone
Someday I will lay me down
On the grass where everything is greener
It always seems so good on the other side

I'm sick of all the heat
You can taste the hate in the air
Running through this family, uncomfortably
It's burning me
Is anybody there
In your eyes there's nothing to see
Just because your dreams have died
Don't drag me down, I've still got mine

And through the night I see the light
Shining from the neighbors' windows
I dream of life where I'm safe
In a home where I am not alone
Someday I will lay me down
On the grass where everything is greener
It always seems so good on the other side

Neighbor boy runs up to me
His eyes all black and blue
I say what happened to you boy
He said my daddy flew
Off the hook cause I was playing too loud
I guess he couldn't hear the T.V.
He said son Ima teach you a lesson

And then he and then he....

Maybe it's not so good on the other side
Maybe it's not so good on the other side
But it always seems so good, on the other side
It always looks so good it always seems so good
