I've said it all now baby sing it to me
Take your time don't deny the words you speak
Just don't say, You're leaving It's for the best you confessed, As you walked out my door
Can we pretend what I said didn't exist anymore

It tears me up inside

Never again we'll breathe the same air
Open my eye's to see if your there
Let's just be more than seventeen
It's it's breaking my heart when I'm finding your hair
The blankets you left on the back of my chair
Too soon to find, Madeline

I know you've seen me on the side of the street
Just drove by didn't say hi my hearts to weak
You must have reasons
With every breath I confess couldn't take anymore
Lost my friend love is dead we don't talk anymore
Can't you hear me screamin'

It tears me up inside

Never again we'll breathe the same air
Open my eye's to see if your there
Let's just be more than seventeen
It's it's breaking my heart when I'm finding your hair
The blankets you left on the back of my chair
Too soon to find, Madeline

Street lights call out your name
They narrate the steps you take Away from me(x2)
