Dumb blonde, skinny bitch
No telling, but her daddy's rich
And any wish she had was granted

Now she knows it, she wants it all
Moved to Hollywood to be a star
But nothing's working as she planned it

Just another (just another) drowning in the L.A. River
Just discovered (just discovered) starring in this big screen thriller
Just another sinking down
And all her dreams lay on the ground

Hollywood's bigger than it looks
On TV or in any book
Or magazines that made her love it

Get a job cause the rent ain't cheap
Downtown living with the freaks
This doesn't feel like home now, does it
Just another (just another) drowning in the L.A. River
Just discovered (just discovered) starring in this big
screen thriller
Just another sinking down
And all her dreams lay on the ground

Yeeeeeeeeaaaaaahhhh!

Just another (just another) drowning in the L.A. River
Just discovered (just discovered) starring in this big
screen thriller
Just another (drowning in the L.A. River)
Just another

It drags me down
And all her dreams lay on the ground
And all her dreams lay on the ground
