Just another lonely
Just another lonely day
You don't even know me anymore
And I don't even know what to say
This is getting so old
This is getting so hard to take
Imagine that we used to be so close
But now that seems so far away

Chorus: (x2)
Breaking out from the inside
Breathing air from the outside baby
Breaking out from the inside and I'm walking away

Just another lonely
Just another lonely phase
I don't know if things can get much worse
I'm already flat on my face
This cage will never hold me
This cage will never hold me wait
I need to find the strength inside me now
To stand up for myself and get away
Chorus...

And I'm feeling so confused in this place
And I'm trying not to lose my mind
And I'm feeling so confused in this place
And I'm trying not to lose my mind so long

Breaking out from the inside
Breathing air from the outside baby
Breaking out from from the inside and I'm WALKING
AWAY

Breaking out from the inside
Breathing air from the outside baby
Breaking out from from the inside and I'm walking
Breaking out from the inside
Breathing air from the outside baby
Breaking out from from the inside and I'm walking
