Someone else's man has captured my heart
Attention seeking maybe and it's tearing me apart
I tried my best to charm him into letting her go loose
But he keeps me from retrieving with another good excuse
Though I'd hate it done to me I'm as busy as can be Still

Running after somebody else's boyfriend
Running after somebody else's boyfriend

Though I realise this game will have to stop
Each day you're digging deeper
Still trying to get on top
I lie awake at night thinking things could be just fine
When I bring you to believing that your love should be mine
Though I'd hate it done to me I'm as busy as can be

Running after somebody else's boyfriend
Running after somebody else's boyfriend

Still running after somebody else's boyfriend
Running after somebody else's boyfriend

Still running
Still running
Still running
Still running

Although I'd hate it done to me
Although I'd hate it done to me I'm as busy as can be still

Running after somebody else's boyfriend
Running after somebody else's boyfriend

Running after somebody else's boyfriend
(Still running)
Running after somebody else's boyfriend
(Still running)

Running after somebody else's boyfriend
(Still running)
Running after somebody else's boyfriend
(Still running)

Running after somebody else's boyfriend
(Still running)
Running after somebody else's boyfriend
(Still running)
Yeah

Running after somebody else's boyfriend
Running after somebody else's boyfriend
