I'm locked into place, and I'm
Trying to find a way out.
I'll gather past mistakes, and try to view them in a way.
Now I know it's true, you don't feel loss until you loose.

I'm scared of falling from heights that I might not
reach,
I'm scared of failing everyone (who believes in me).
I'm scared of loosing my friends,
I'm scared of leaving this town,
But my biggest fear is if I don't I'll never make it out.

I'm scared of falling from heights.
I'm scared of falling from heights.
I'm scared of falling from heights.

It's not a shame, my chances came,
But you believe, that I can't see.
Let's not forget, that mistakes are ment for making,
And acknowledge that, chances are there for taking.

I'm scared of falling from heights that I might not
reach,
I'm scared of failing everyone (who believes in me).
I'm scared of loosing my friends,
I'm scared of leaving this town,
But my biggest fear is if I don't I'll never make it out.

I'm scared of falling from heights.
I'm scared of falling from heights.
I'm scared of falling from heights.
