She's got a lighter hidden in her left hand,
She's setting fire to all the things that I've planned.
I see her messages written in the wet sand,
I can't read them, I don't understand.

If trouble has a way of finding you, then trouble got
lucky and I did too!

(Don't worry 'cause I'm not running, don't worry 'cause
I'm not running away!)

If trouble has a way of finding you, then trouble got
lucky and I did too!

(Don't worry 'cause I'm not running, don't worry 'cause
I'm not running away!)

If trouble has a way of finding you, then trouble got lucky and I did too, ohohohhhh!

She's got an ace, hidden up her right sleeve, She's burning buildings to the ground to try and get to me.

I see her footprints leading on to higher ground but I kick the dust and forget they exist.

If trouble has a way of finding you, then trouble got
lucky and I did too!

(Don't worry 'cause I'm not running, don't worry 'cause
I'm not running away!)

If trouble has a way of finding you, then trouble got
lucky and I did too!

(Don't worry 'cause I'm not running, don't worry 'cause
I'm not running away!)

If trouble has a way of finding you, then trouble got
lucky and I did too!

(Don't worry 'cause I'm not running, don't worry 'cause
I'm not running away!)

If trouble has a way of finding you, then trouble got
lucky and I did too!

(Don't worry 'cause I'm not running, don't worry 'cause
I'm not running away!)

If trouble has a way of finding you, then trouble got lucky and I did too, ohohohhhh!

Don't worry 'cause I'm not running, don't worry 'cause
I'm not running away,
Don't worry 'cause I'm not running, don't worry 'cause
I'm not running (oh!).

Don't worry 'cause I'm not running, don't worry 'cause
I'm not running away!
Don't worry 'cause I'm not running, don't worry 'cause
I'm not running away!
Don't worry 'cause I'm not running, don't worry 'cause
I'm not running away!
Don't worry 'cause I'm not running, don't worry 'cause
I'm not running away!

Don't worry 'cause I'm not running, don't worry 'cause
I'm not running away!
Don't worry 'cause I'm not running, don't worry 'cause
I'm not running away!
