

Thick As Blood

"Hold Fast"

I refuse to be like you, so weak and not true,
To your promise and commitment
Need support from everyone to make your choices.
To keep holding on because it's my war
Against the filth of this fucking world.
Gotta keep my body strong, gotta keep my mind
strong.
I make my own choices and I think for myself
Cause this cause it's my war
Against the filth and it's about me.
Gotta keep my body strong, gotta keep my body clean.
Straight edge. Straight edge for myself.
Fuck you and everybody else.
