My friends tell me she will be back some day.
Until then, I'll have to find a way.
I've tried so very hard to be someone she'd fall in love
with.
I cry my eyes out. She's no good, it's true, and I know it.
Guess she's just a crazy, mixed up kid.

Every night, she says she'll come around.
Until she does, you know I won't be found.
I've tried so very hard to be someone she'd fall in love
with.
I cry my eyes out. She's no good, it's true, and I know it.
Guess she's just a crazy, mixed up kid.

I won't compromise. I won't look in her eyes.
It seems unfair that girls like her don't even care.

My friends tell me she will be back some day.
Until then, I'll have to find a way.
I've tried so very hard to be someone she'd fall in love
with.
It hurts to love a girl when she don't even want to know you.
Guess she's just a crazy, mixed up kid.
