I've got the Viennese hangover, won't you please
Come back again to my arms?
I've got a number of things that are wrong with me
This much you knew from the start

Viennese hangover keeps coming back to me
Viennese hangover, senses olfactory
Viennese hangover, not what was meant to be
Viennese hangover, stop

I've got a question of true love to ask of you
Please be so kind to reply
I've got a message that I'd like to send to you
Maybe I'll write in the sky

Viennese hangover, keeps coming back to me
Viennese hangover, senses olfactory
Viennese hangover, not what was meant to be
Viennese hangover, stop

I've got a home and a life of my own, there's just no way I'm giving in
I've got a wife and a job that's alright
I won't be wrong, it won't be long until I'm gone
And then you'll see it's meant to be, it is

Viennese hangover, keeps coming back to me
Viennese hangover, senses olfactory
Viennese hangover, not what was meant to be
Viennese hangover, stop

I've got the Viennese hangover, won't you please
Come back again to my heart?
Viennese hangover time
Viennese hangover's mine
