Lost in tears beyond tears
Frozen weeps rain in mournful clouds
Clandestine scars; the picture that bleeds in me
Delirious equilibrium of abandon seas
Oh caressing grace, come forth into me
Enshrine my marbled heart
Snow that bleeds the enlightened symbols
Moon! Oh hear my call
Firmament ruins, enshrined by the shimmering
Moonlight
Dancing across silent silver waves
Over forsaken whispering angels remains
And beneath the sweet caress of dreaming shadows
(Ref.)
Mourn sproud up to monumental pain
Flowing cascades of silver scars
Shall wipe away my tears
Mesmerized by the darkened moonlight
