End of the Book

by Michael W. Smith

on Michael W. Smith 2 (1984)

On the day you were saved

Heaven and hell watched (it all) ???

Angels praised devils raged

Life became a battleground

So when hell starts to move

And the enemy marches on you

Hang on, it's a fight

You've been marked by the army of night

You're a target

When your heart loved the dark

Hell could just leave you alone

With your life filled with light

You have become quite a foe

So when hell starts to move

And the enemy marches on you

Hang on, it's a fight

It's a battle of darkness and light

When things get bad

And you can't stand to look
It's time to read to the end of the book.
Don't put it down till you get to the end
When Jesus comes and his kingdom begins
Till He comes, (God the Son's) ???
Deep desire's to use the sword
And every fight has a light
When you know we win the war!
So when hell starts to move
And the enemy marches on you
Hang on, it's a fight
You're a part of the army of light
When things get bad
And you can't stand to look
It's time to read to the end of the book.
Don't put it down till you get to the end
When Jesus comes and his kingdom begins
Repeat
