Hate, love and war
Force emotions to the fore
But not for me, of course, of course
I keep mine hidden, oh

I keep mine hidden
But it's so easy for you
Because you let yours flail
Into public view, oh, oh

Yellow and green, a stumbling block
I'm a twenty-digit combination to unlock
With a past where to be touched
Meant to be mental

Ooh, I keep mine hidden
The lies are so easy for you
Because you let yours slide
Into public view, oh, oh

Use your loaf
