I catch your eyes, try not to smile
I track your style, I feel your vibes
We have a drink, then go outside
Talk for a while and then we kiss
And then we kiss, and then we kiss

We play the game, we start to move
I feel my heart, you feel the beat
I take your hand, you turn around slow
We start to feel it's time to go

Bright, morning will hit the sky
And it's no surprise, I wake up with you
Right, I shouldn't compromise
I don't have to think twice what to do

Chorus (2X)

You got me hypnotized
You got me hypnotized
You got me hypnotized
So we know what to do

So we slide into the night
Into the wild, open flow
All starry-eyed, you see me glow
So will I hide or will I show

You watch me dance, I feel you move
You pull me near, nothing to fear
We drift inside a dreamless night
Until we slide into the light

Bright, morning will hit the sky
And it's no surprise I wake up with you
Right, I shouldn't compromise
I don't have to think twice what to do

Chorus (2X)
