"I'm Smiling"

I'm tired, so tired,
Of prolonging.
A fake laugh, until you see that I'm smiling.
If only you looked up, a second later.
You'd see how bored, I truly am.

I'm tired, so tired,
Of prolonging.
A fake laugh, until you see that I'm smiling.
If only you looked up, a second later.
You'd see how bored, I truly am.

And I'm tired of expelling, that small amount of air,
from my nostrils.
Discerned place of words, that I don't wanna say.
"Wow!", "that's great!", "your kidding!"

I'm tired, so tired,
Of prolonging.
A fake laugh, until you see that I'm smiling.
If only you looked up, a second later.
You'd see how bored, I truly am.
