"Up And Leave"

Ah, yeah

Let me tell you a story

So I'm chilling nice at home, and suddenly goes my phone

The vibration with the beeping on it goes (BEEP)

I scream "Leave me alone!" "What?" "I said leave me alone!"

Girl don't you get it? I'm gone

Know what? you're wrong!"

I hung up, the flat tone it rings on and it's on

And it's good 'cos I should be alone on my own in the zone

With the beat playing on and my rhymes carry on till it's done

It's no fun with no space I just needed a break

So take yours, I'll take mine with no pause on the time

It's all good it unwinds like it should

Put your mind to it and baby, yep maybe you could

Make something of yourself, but quit bothering me

See I got problems to be honest, I ain't popular b

I just wanna be me, she say she wanna be free

I reply honestestly? Whoops wait meaning to say girl

Honestly, that's a mockery

I've had enough of your cheek

If you really wanna girl then just up and leave

(Girl I've had enough of your cheek)

Yep,

And I'm talking all four of them

Fell of the wagon, got me pouring more and more again

But I ain't talking 'bout drinks, I'm talking lyrics

If you feel this please turn this here up

Until the pyramids in Egypt come crashing down

From the bass sounding so loud

That the ground will collapse, oh the track?

I'm going off topic again let it spin, bring it back

Where's my pen? Oh relax, it's right here in my hand

Like yours used to be, girl truthfully, this is all new to me

We were an item now you wanna check out
What!
Girl all that shopping must have gone to your head
Already said it once baby I won't say it again
I just need to get away so don't play with my head I said,
Yeah
