I walk alone you are in my song
We make our way up on a warm breeze
Down mimosa street across the avenue
I hear a voice that's calling me to sing as one - aaaah
Brave the waters and see when it happens
Life can be sweet, life can be hmmm
If you just
So la ti do for joy and sorrow
Wouldnt it be nice to have you
We fall in love in tears and laughter
Yes it would be nice to have you
Way beyond and way
Before tomorrow
Now it's early march and you're still here with me
Warm in my heart and we are free to be as one
Wont you sing it with me?
Brave the waters and see when it happens
Life can be sweet life can be hmmm
If you just
So la ti do for joy and sorrow
Wouldnt it be nice to have you
We fall in love in tears and laughter
Yes it would be nice to have you
Way beyond and way before
We dream of love
Reminisces and kisses
Wouldnt it be nice to have you
Oh to have my love
Loving and giving
Yes it would be nice to have you
Way beyond and way
Before tomorrow
