Break the boundaries, my philosophy

There I was talking to some friends just the other day

They said I better give it up and find some other way

But what about the beauty in the experience

My duty is taking it giving it taking it giving it

Up all the way to its fruition no mind pollution

Or confusion, disillusion, who controls the distribution?

Is it a thing of the past? Think of the future

Is it a blast? Shouldnt you wonder? Thats the truth

Not a blunder, hear the thunder?

Break the boundaries, my philosophy

Break the boundaries, my philosophy

Break the boundaries, my philosophy

Break the boundaries, my philosophy

Break

You can spend your whole life being like the good guys

Doing like you should guys (and you know just what I mean)

You pushin and you shovin and you never get no lovin

Dont stop movin what you need is a little liberation

From those upright uptight fools in their schools

You got to break out shake out

Take the woman and you make out

Dont stop living know you gotta

Break the boundaries, my philosophy
