So many times you made me cry
I try to hide the reasons why
I try to forgive you for everything you've done
But over and over, there's always more to come

I don't wanna see you once again
'Cause you've brought me nothing
You gave me the pain

Don't try to seduce me, don't stand on my land
I'm hurt enough, I don't think you understand
I told you to go, but you wait in my way
Anyway

Don't try to seduce me, don't stand on my land
I'm hurt enough, I don't think you understand
I told you to go, but you wait in my way
Anyway, but it's okay

I can't believe it's real, we run but we hold still
Your voice is calling out, I can hear my name
I feel you coming back, your breath is on my neck
But I don't wanna see you again

Don't try to seduce me, don't stand on my land
I'm hurt enough, I don't think you understand
I told you to go, but you wait in my way
Anyway, but it's okay, that's okay

Lalala lay down
Lalala lay down, lay down
