Gray days, to be or not to be
Who are we, it's a mystery
Always, we have bled for
The grail of life though it's just next door

The best you don't need to pay for
The best you don't wait to come
The best you don't need to pay for
Always on the run

Time flies, many thousand years
And slowly the stupor disappears
People stand up one by one
To find out what makes the world go round

The best you don't need to pay for
The best you don't need to buy
The best you don't need to pay for
Recall and realize

The best you don't need to fight for
The best you don't wait to come
The best you don't need to pay for
Always on the run, we're always on the run, yeah
We're always on the run, we're always on the run

The best you don't need to pay for
The best you don't wait to come
The best you don't need to pay for
Always on the run

The best you don't need to pay for
The best you don't need to buy
The best you don't need to pay for
Recall and realize

The best you don't need to fight for
The best you don't wait to come
The best you don't need to pay for
Always on the run, we're always on the run, yeah
We're always on the run, always on the run

The best you don't need to pay for
The best you don't need to pay for
The best you don't need to pay for
The best you don't need to pay for
The best you don't need to pay for
