Maybe from the outside,
Things look all right.
But you know it isn't so.
'Cause baby on the inside,
I spent all night,
Counting the reasons
I should go.

(CHORUS)
How will I know
When love's true,
If it comes for real?
I told you
That you shouldn't let me hold you
'Cause it breaks my heart again,
Every time you turn away.

I don't wanna go there.
'Cause I've had my share of believing lovers' lies.
And you've already shown me that i can't see,
Just by looking in your eyes.
