Point it out, point it out to me
Point it out, this I've got to see

You're the one that I'm crazy for
And everyday it seems I love you more and more
Now if there's some reason why I shouldn't love you
The way that I do with a love that is true
So go on and
Point it out girl, point it out to me
Though I doubt, it could ever be
Loves a hallway with so many doors
Which one did I go through that made me yours?

I want to close it up and never again
Leave from within to go back where I've been
So come on and
Point it out to me
Lock it up throw away the key
Oh yeah

Yeah, yeah-yeah
That magic somewhere only lovers know
That's where I want for you and me to go
A life of happiness is guaranteed
All that we need is love to succeed

So let me in
Point it out ooo yeah point it out to you-hoo
Show your love yeah, girl like you never knew
Point it out oh baby now point it out to me
Gonna show your lovin
