Last night I turned the radio on for the midnight news suddenly I thought I'd died of a broken heart when I heard the announcer say:

The great rock singer Elvis Presley also known as the king just died in a hospital in Memphis Tennessee

USA
at the age of fortytwo years.

I remember Elvis Presley
Lord
how I love to hear him sing so I'll adore him just for ever for he's the one and only "King".
Like he was singing "Now or never he's just a golden memory.

Good luck charm is not for ever good luck songs we need 'em ever again again I'll play your songs

'cause in my mind you haven't gone.

I remember Elvis Presley
Lord
how I love to hear him sing
so I'll adore him just for ever
for he's the one and only "King".
Like he was singing "Now or never
he's just a golden memory.

My dear friend I won't forget you when I need you I can hear you King though I dont know where or when there'll be a day we meet again.

Elvis Presley

I wanna thank you for all the happiness you gave so many people all over the world during many many years.

Ha

I remember the disc-jockey was playing "Jailhouse Rock"

When I had my first date with a beautiful girl and since that evening you've been my friend Elvis !

I remember Elvis Presley

Lord

how I love to hear him sing
so I'll adore him just for ever
for he's the one and only "King".
Like he was singing "Now or never
he's just a golden memory.
So I'll adore him just for ever
he's just a golden memory.
