So I'm standing at the station
For trains that never show I could hear where you were coming from and how was I to know It's so cold and lonely here and it's miles from where we were so I'm waiting for the last train coming in
Take me home on the last train to the place I love so dear to my baby's arms
To my baby's smile
A million miles from here
So I'm flicking through the pages
Of a womans magazine Reading for the stories sure that's where I've been they say he was your love
The new guy always wins
So I'm waiting for the last train
Coming in
Take me home on the last train.. won't you take me take me home on the last train
Take me home on the last train
it's so cold and lonely here
And it's miles from where we were Now I'm waiting for the last train Coming in
Take me home on the last train
Take me home on the last train...
won't you take me home (Take me home)
just take me home (Take me home)
