Jesus cried for my pain
Removed agony and strain
Lent His ear to my fear
There?s healing in His tears
There?s healing in His tears

Being both God and man
Who better would understand
Than the One who comforts me
And who died to set me free

Jesus cried for my pain
Removed agony and strain
Lent His ear to my fear
There?s healing in His tears
There?s healing in His tears

Just like He cried for Lazarus
Still today He cares for us
And when Jesus feels your pain
Nothing in your life remains the same

Jesus cried for my pain
Removed agony and strain
Lent His ear to my fear
There?s healing in His tears
There?s healing in His tears

Healing, healing
Healing, healing, oh

Oh, oh, oh, oh, healing
Oh, oh, healing
