Midnight moon I hold you
For this perfect night
Love is born to linger
In your magic light

With that girl beside me and you above
You must also be in love

Midnight moon that [Incomprehensible] me
She's got an angel face
Meet us here tomorrow night
In the very same place

Midnight moon, midnight moon
Don't go off till then, too soon

Wait until she knows how I feel about her
You and I simply can't go on without her, yeah yeah, yeah yeah

Girl beside me and you above
You must also be in love
In love, in love, in love
