She called me up today just to let me know
That she found somebody better and she's letting me go
I've never been one to be on my own
At least that's what she thinks, not what my past has shown
Maybe you'd think twice if you had known

And every kiss I hope it tastes like me
And every single night I hope it haunts you in your sleep
I hope it gets so bad that all you want is to forget
I can't wait to be your biggest regret

I'm done with rehearsal for calling you out
If it's you, you know exactly who I'm talking about I'll write a hook so big you won't forget
So enjoy my voice and all the bitter things that I said

And over and over and over in your head

And every kiss I hope it tastes like me
And every single night I hope it haunts you in your
sleep
I hope it gets so bad that all you want is to forget
I can't wait to be your biggest regret

I'm sorry
Forgive me
It's just too easy
Because you need me

And every kiss I hope it tastes like me
And every single night I hope it haunts you in your
sleep
I hope it gets so bad that all you want is to forget
I can't wait to be your biggest regret

And every kiss I hope it tastes like me
And every single night I hope it haunts you in your
sleep

I hope it gets so bad that all you want is to forget
I can't wait to be your biggest regret
