No one adores you
No one rewards you
Nobody hears what you say
It's old faded pictures of you and your sisters
On the first day of school
I always play with you
Nobody loves you
More than they ought to Nobody cares what you think
I still hold those pictures
Of you and your sisters
I'll always play the fool
I'll always play with you
So an angel has your name
What a perfect name it is
And although it's not the same
The heartache isn't all that lives
Never adores you
Never rewards you
Kissing you on the cheek
It's old faded pictures of you and your sisters
On the first day of school
I always play with you
So an angel has your name
What a perfect name it is
And although it's not the same
the heartache isn't all that lives
