Dear friend, please tell me who I am
And start from the inside
Or wait instead, before it's said
All these monsters I couldn't hide
Beneath the bed or in my head
If I was stronger they would've died
But every once in a while I'm terrified

Hey You, could you analyze my state of mind, my state of mind?
What did You recognize? What did You find, what did
You find?
Better days I've fantasized if I'm satisfied, am I satisfied?
Get rid of this low feeling with soul healing
Get rid of this low feeling with soul healing

Please talk before the clock runs out
And I am still a mystery
You're not so wise, I apologize
I still care what you think of me
To survive, I criticize other people that I'll never be
The truth is, I bruise too easily

Hey You, could you analyze my state of mind, my state
of mind?
What did You recognize? What did You find, what did
You find?
Better days I've fantasized if I'm satisfied, am I
satisfied?
Get rid of this low feeling with soul healing
Get rid of this low feeling with soul healing

Convince me it's alright
That loneliness will subside
My hands tied, surrendered
To all these storms that I've weathered Are You listening wherever?
Why is this taking forever
Heal it quick, I don't care
Just fix me there

Hey You, could You analyze?
What did You recognize?
Yeah

Hey You, could you analyze my state of mind, my state
of mind?
What did You recognize? What did You find, what did
You find?
Better days I've fantasized if I'm satisfied, am I
satisfied?
Get rid of this low feeling with soul healing
Get rid of this low feeling with soul healing
