You must excuse me but I can't recall your name
Names are only words and words get in the way
The memory of your body's so complete
I smell your perfume as I drift away to sleep

You've been away for so long, and so many in between It's hard to count them all, but you are

The one who made incomplete
Got your hooks in me so deep
How can I break this spell, I'll bet you'll never tell
Along with all the other secrets that you keep

It must be alcohol was fogging up my brain
The night when I saw you and staggered off the stage
The way you told me what you do to me
Was carried off by music, so loud I couldn't breathe

But you loved me so right
And so many days it seemed
Or was it just one night

The one who made incomplete
Got your hooks in me so deep
How can I break this spell, I'll bet you'll never tell
Along with all the other secrets that you keep

You know I fell in love when I saw you
I can't remember what I said or what we do
Can I convince you that I wrote this song for you, and only you
What can I do?
