One last call
For Mister-know-it-all
But you don't hear me
You won't hear me

If I were you
I wouldn't try to prove
That there's a rightness
To your wrongness all the time

You're always the wiser
And I've had enough
Love is in disguise now
If anything at all

One more fact
And opposites attract
For no good reason
No good reason

You're all talk
You never walk the walk
Just ignore me
Right before me all the time

You're always the wiser
And I've had enough
Love is in disguise now
If anything at all

Wronging all the rights
Cry now, whatever it's about
Do you feel better?
Do you feel better?

(Love is in disguise)
