Baby, I think we both know
It's gone wrong, wrong, wrong
And I know you don't think we can carry it on
Baby, I think we both know
It's gone bad, bad, bad
Think of all the good times we had

Driving to your house
'Member when we first met
Dancing on a friday night
Under the moonlight
Talking 'til the night was gone
In the back of my truck with the radio on

Then that old song comes on
Together we're singing
Forever we're singing
When that old song comes on
Together we're singing
Forever we're singing
That old country song
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah

Baby, I think we both know
It's alright, alright
But how could I forget what you did that night
Baby, you told me you loved me in Tennessee
Where we were gonna live
But now you've done a few things that I can't forgive

Driving to her house
Tellin' her you love her
Lying on a friday night
Ring in your pocket
Lying to me all along
In the back of your truck with the radio on

Then that old song comes on
Together we're singing
Forever we're singing
I know we went wrong but we belong

Together we're singing
Forever we're singing
That old country song
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah

Then that old song comes on
Together we're singing
Forever we're singing
I know we went wrong but we belong
Together we're singing
Forever we're singing
That old country song
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah

Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
