um yes, pardon me

Oh what elegance in Vietnam they bombed the elephants guns shots sound like scating from Ella Fitz Louie's blowing his bugle its wake up time for the army ants I would be sad if all this was real I'm smiling cause this life is temporary and so fantastic

I don't know what I've been told in fantastic you never grow old I don't know what I've been told when I die I keep my soul I don't know what I've been told in fantastic there is no war
I don't know what I've been told in fantastic nobodies poor this is for general Walter E. Kurtz agent orange, dead trees, kids with guns and vets that are rich
